Re: subscription to NLIST

Sir,

As per the need of the day we must have an access to the online journals and articles which are popular around the globe. The central govt has given us this facility (<http://nlist.inflibnet.ac.in>) in which we are supposed to subscribe annually for Rs. 6000. We could access the articles published in Jstor, Cambridge University Press, Oxford University press etc.

I have explained Arup the needful. The point is to pay online. See to it that this could be arranged for the college because almost all the colleges under the University of Kalyani have opted for this facility. If you remember even Tanveer Alam Mazhari also talked about this in his lecture and asked us to get the subscription. I have added this as a part of the facilities provided in SSR. So may be we should do it as soon as possible.

Thanking you,

Sudipto Mukhopadhyay
